D. PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Timothy Rogus, Chicago (Midwest territory)
January to June 2000

The Public Affairs Division of the Québec Trade Office of Chicago has taken part in the following events, meetings, exhibitions, and trips during the last six months:

January 2000

- At the offices of the Chicago School Board, delivered speech to 40 middle-school and high-school teachers on topic "Why you should establish a French program at your school."

February 2000

- In collaboration with Dennis Moore of the Consulate General of Detroit, organized a "Québec Showcase" at the annual meeting of the North American Folk Alliance in Cleveland, Ohio. As a result of this collaborative effort, 6 Québec folk groups were played before presenters, booking agents, and other folk musicians to give Americans a three-and-a-half-hour sample of the folk music of Québec.
- Became member of the Advisory Board of the organization named the French Heritage Corridor, which seeks to promote a consciousness of the French Colonial history of the region extending from Québec City to New Orleans. Attended the organization's annual meeting as representative of the Québec Trade Office at Starved Rock State Park, near Ottawa, Illinois.
- Distributed the address of the Québec Government Internet web site to approximately 150 people, who had evidenced an interest in Québec.

March 2000

- Met with Carla Zecher of the Newberry Library of Chicago to discuss the possibility of organizing a series of three yearly seminars on Québec at this prestigious research library. The first of these seminars will occur in February 2001, in cooperation with the Alliance française of Chicago.
- Along with the other Officers of the Québec Trade Office, met with Mr. Jeff Johnson, Toronto representative of the State of Illinois Trade Mission. We discussed the Illinois Office's role in encouraging trade between the State and the provinces of Canada.
- Visited with Maud Lyon, head of the organizing committee of Detroit 300 Detroit's tri-centennial celebration to discuss possibilities for Québec participation in the year-long festivities, which will begin in January 2001. During the same trip to Detroit, met with the head of the French-speaking committee of the Tri-Centennial, as well as with a representative of the Detroit Festival of the Arts, Ngia Kai. Objective of the latter conversation: to familiarize myself with this major arts festival to ascertain opportunities for Québec artists.
- Recommended that Québec musical artist Jorane Peltier apply to play at the Chicago Humanities Festival in November 2000. Mlle Peltier will be appearing at that Festival this year.

April 2000

- Was Québec Trade Office's representative at the International Job Fair at Elmhurst College, Elmhurst, Illinois.
- Gave dinner at Drake Hotel for Board members of Performing Arts Chicago and the dancers of Compagnie Marie Chouinard, the evening before the Compagnie's two-day series of performances in the city of Chicago.
- Organized lecture tour for Québec novelist Arlette Couture at four Midwest universities: Michigan State University (East Lansing, Michigan), University of Illinois at Chicago, University of Illinois/Champaign-Urbana, and DePaul University. Accompanied Ms. Cousture on the tour to these campuses.

ITEM 11

Timothy Rogus, Chicago -Midwest territory (Cont'd)
January to June 2000

May 2000

- Discussion with Mr. Phil Reynolds, Executive Director of the Dance Center of Columbia College regarding possibilities of Québec dance troupes appearances in the country.
- Discussion with Phillis Lambert, Director of the Center of Canadian Architecture concerning architectural exchanges between Chicago and Québec.
- Participation in a video-conference between Québec representatives and the University of Chicago concerning an annual NAFTA Forum at the University of Illinois.
- Distributed about 80 copies of the bibliographical volume A Guide to Québec Studies to university and college libraries in the Midwest.

June 2000

- In collaboration with the Alliance française of Chicago, organized a Saint-Jean-Baptiste (Québec National Holiday) celebration, which attracted nearly 100 people (Québec film, reception with food, display of Québec novels, theater, poetry, Québec folk group, Les Crapaudes, played for an hour and a half.)
- Arranged with Mme Colette Dupuis of Québec book distributor, Exportlivre, to send 150 volumes to be displayed at the Alliance française during and two months after the Saint-Jean-Baptiste celebration.
- Arranged for the appearance of Les Crapaudes for the Saint-Jean-Baptiste event. First heard them at the annual meeting of the North American Folk Alliance in February.
- Invited members of the press to cover the Saint-Jean-Baptiste celebration. An article appeared three days later in The Chicago Tribune describing the event and detailing the French-Québec connections with the Chicago area and the Midwest.
- Dealt with Rich Warren of FM radio station WFMT for the appearance of Les Crapaudes on his nationally syndicated program, Folk Stage. The group appeared live on that program on the day of the Saint-Jean-Baptiste.
- Participated in video-conference between representatives of Québec and Stanley Pfiang of the Department of Commerce of the State of Wisconsin. Video-conference was to lay groundwork for Premier Lucien Bouchard's Mission to Wisconsin at the end of September 2000.
- In preparation for Premier Bouchard's visit to Wisconsin (and a delayed trip to Michigan), began discussions with the Institute of World Affairs at the University of Wisconsin (Milwaukee, Wisconsin), the American Association of Teachers of French, the Detroit Economic Forum, Wayne State University (Detroit, Michigan) to propose collaborative events with those organizations during the Premier's proposed visit to those two states.
- Selected American public relations firms to bid on handling media aspects of M. Bouchard's Mission.
- Recommended to Québec transportation companies that could effectively handle that aspect of the Mission.
- Wrote copy for the Québec Trade Office intended for Québec's American web site originating at the Québec Delegation in New York.
- Discussions with Rich Warren of WFMT to bring folk group Matapat to Chicago to appear on WFMT's Folk Stage in the month of September 2000.
